

Our trainers for Seeds for Integration!

Stuck with your project plan? Not sure how to plan your workshop? Need ideas for evaluation methods for your initiative? We have a group of young trainers, educators and facilitators who are all very experienced in the field of school student activism and willing to help. Many of them have been involved with Seeds for Integration on a local level too and are happy to give you tips based on their own initiatives.

Below you can find their contacts, languages and fields of expertise. Please don't hesitate to send an email with your question in your preferred language to pot@obessu.org they will be happy to give you ideas and feedback!

Examples for questions include

- How can I structure a workshop on migrants' rights best?
- What are innovative methods for fundraising?
- What games could we use to create a good group atmosphere at our event?
- Do you have ideas for creative documentation of our learning?

Laura Maria Kull

Languages	Areas of expertise
Estonian	Organisational development
English	Fundraising
German	Seeds for Integration project in Estonia

Laura has been the responsible for a Seeds for Integration project in Estonia. She is very experienced in organising workshops and debates with young people and excited to share with you her best tips.

Marvin Müller

Languages	Areas of expertise
German	Education for democratic citizenship
English	School students rights
	Active participation
	Seeds for Integration project in Germany

Marvin has been closely involved with a German Seeds for Integration project. He will be happy to share best-practice from his own experience of running a Seeds for Integration project and feedback yours!

Keti Saner

Languages	Areas of expertise
German	Democratic education
English	Participation
	Organisational development
	Facilitation techniques

If you are stuck with your methods and need some inspiration, Keti is definitely the right person for you! With a lot of experience in different methods and approaches for working with other young people even on difficult topics such as migration, she can provide you with a lot of ideas.

Joanna Siewierska

Languages	Areas of expertise
Polish	Human rights
English	Integration
French	Social justice

Questions on human rights approaches to migration? Joanna has experience in organising events to discuss integration and identity with ethnic minorities and other young people. She has also designed workshops, storytelling sessions and debates on the topic of integration - including one Irish Seeds for Integration project.

Giuseppina Tucci

Languages	Areas of expertise
Italian	Organisational development
English	Advocacy and lobbying
French	Fundraising
German	Migration
	Gender and LGBT+ rights

Pina has been an activist for more than 10 years and can help you out not only with questions related to migration but also fundraising and lobbying. Those are key elements of a successful event!